F. Maintenance of Records

- 1. An individual in custody's master file, received from the facility Record Office on the date of the individual in custody's release under supervision, shall be maintained in the following manner:
 - a. Date of release and type of release shall be recorded on the face sheet of the master file.
 - b. Information received in the Field Services Office shall be filed in the master file in Section 2 in a timely manner pursuant to Administrative Directive 01.07.110.
 - c. When a warrant or warrant disposition is issued, the master file shall be flagged and placed in warrant status.
 - d. When a warrant is withdrawn, the master file shall be returned to active file status.
 - e. When notification is received that a violator has been returned to a Reception and Classification Center or Unit, the individual in custody's master file shall promptly be forwarded in accordance with Administrative Directive 01.07.930.
 - f. When the individual in custody's discharge date arrives, the Field Services Representative shall process and file all necessary documents required for discharge in the master file and forward the master file to the facility Record Office for final recomputation in accordance with Administrative Directive 01.07.935. The facility Record Office shall certify the discharge date and record that date on the face sheet of the master file.

NOTE: If the individual in custody is discharging from parole, the Field Services Representative shall complete all steps in Paragraph II.F.1.f., including final recomputation in accordance with Administrative Directive 01.07.935, and certification and documentation of same on the face sheet of the master file.

2. A tickler file shall be established:

- a. For each individual in custody within six months of his or her release under supervision.
- b. When an official document is received for an individual in custody, regardless of MSR date.

The tickler file shall include:

- a. Prisoner Review Board Orders, if available;
- b. The appropriate Release Material Checklist, indicating pre-release material that was forwarded to the appropriate office;
- c. A copy of the Offender 360 Reporting Instructions or community screen; and
- d. The individual in custody's official documents such as social security card, birth certificate, marriage license, and driver's license or State identification card.
